

SPRINGFIELD TECHNICAL COMMUNITY COLLEGE

ACADEMIC AFFAIRS

Course Number: FREN 224 Department: English & Foreign Languages

Course Title: Elementary French 2 Semester: Spring Year: 1999

Objectives/Competencies

Course Objective	Competencies
1. Gaining basic listening comprehension. 2. Gaining a basic comprehension of the French phonetic system and proper pronunciation of French sounds. 3. Development of basic conversational skills in French.	1. Student comprehends oral instructions in the simple present tense, futur proche, passe compose and imparfait given by instructor and responds to and/or follows those instructions. 2. Student demonstrates ability to respond to instructor orally using the simple present tense. 3. Student demonstrates ability to respond to instructor orally using basic vocabulary and various idiomatic expressions. 4. Student is able to complete assigned exercises in workbook accompanying text using supplementary audio cassettes. 1. Student correctly pronounces letters of the French alphabet. 2. Student recognizes and uses French accents correctly. 3. Student uses correct rhythm and intonation when reading words, sentences, and paragraphs.

Course Objective	Competencies
6. Development of basic writing skills in French: i.e., simple sentences and short paragraphs. 7. Learning the culture and customs of people in French-speaking countries.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Student understands simple French paragraphs, essays, and poems in the text, workbook, and supplementary materials. 2. Student effectively uses the computer diskette and CS ROM, and can e-mail in French. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Student writes simple and compound subject/verb combinations in sentences and paragraphs using simple present, passe compose, imparfait, and futur proche tenses. 2. Student uses correct placement and agreement of descriptive adjectives, demonstrative and possessive adjectives and possessive pronouns within sentences. 3. Student demonstrates proficiency writing a cohesive, grammatically correct simple paragraph using a topic sentence, body, and conclusion in the present, past and/or future tenses. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Student identifies the French-speaking countries and regions of the world. 2. Student demonstrates knowledge of language and cultural differences among the French-speaking countries and regions worldwide. 3. Student demonstrates awareness of the French influence in countries/regions worldwide through the language, holidays, arts, literature, architecture, and customs.

Course Number: FREN 224

Page 4