

SPRINGFIELD TECHNICAL COMMUNITY COLLEGE

ACADEMIC AFFAIRS

Course Number: MANG-335 Department: Business Administration

Course Title: Leadership Semester: Fall Year: 2011

Objectives/Competencies

Course Objective	Competencies
1. To introduce students to the terms, concepts and vocabulary related to leadership.	1. Effectively discuss concepts and ideas using the correct leadership terminology.
2. To assist students in diagnosing situations to determine what leadership actions are needed.	1. Analyze case studies and recommend leadership actions to be taken.
3. To understand the major leadership theories.	1. Explain verbally and/or in writing leadership theories such as situational leadership theory, 3C leadership model, servant leader, etc.
4. To assist students in developing critical thinking skills.	1. Analyze case studies and videos, identify problems and recommend leadership actions.
5. To assist students in developing effective communication skills.	1. Explain ideas clearly, concisely and completely during class discussions, presentations and written homework assignments.
6. To assist students in developing effective team skills.	1. Participate and complete in-class team assignments.

Course Objective	Competencies
7. To assist students in developing computer skills.	1. Complete assignments using the Internet to do research.