

SPRINGFIELD TECHNICAL COMMUNITY COLLEGE

ACADEMIC AFFAIRS

Course Number: LAND 111 Department: Landscape Technology

Course Title: Trees in the Landscape Semester: Spring Year: 1997

Objectives/Competencies

Course Objective	Competencies
1. To provide students with basic knowledge of trees.	1. List basic plant identification characteristics. 2. Identify trees by its plant parts. 3. Identify trees by its growth habit, size and shape.
2. Enable to select species for landscape design problems.	1. Explain the landscape attributes of trees. 2. List trees by their special uses.
3. Study many types of tree problems.	1. Describe common tree problems. 2. Describe the environmental stress that should be avoided to reduce tree growth problems. 3. List trees used for site specific problems.