

SPRINGFIELD TECHNICAL COMMUNITY COLLEGE

ACADEMIC AFFAIRS

Course Number: PTAS 402 Department: Physical Therapist Assistant

Course Title: PTA Senior Seminar Semester: Spring Year: 1999

Objectives/Competencies

Course Objective	Competencies
1.The student should develop a correlation between didactic, laboratory and clinical learning.	1.Discuss specific clinical patient problems and solutions. 2.Discuss legal implications in the administration of PT services. 3.Discuss examples of professional ethics (or lack of) observed in the clinic. 4.Demonstrate an understanding of fiscal considerations for providers and consumers. 5.Demonstrate an understanding of quality improvement and other outcome measures used in the clinic. 6.List measurement standards of adaptive seating and mobility equipment and discuss special considerations.
2.The student should develop professional behavior skills.	1.Write his/her own resume. 2.Demonstrate preparedness for a job interview. 3.Prepare and present two case studies. 4.Participate appropriately in class discussion. 5.Demonstrate evidence of personal and professional growth and readiness for clinical employment at entry level.

Course Objective	Competencies
	6.Prepare documents for licensure exam application. 7.Maintain a professional attitude regarding his/her clinical placement.