

SPRINGFIELD TECHNICAL COMMUNITY COLLEGE

ACADEMIC AFFAIRS

Course Number: ENT-260 Department: Business Administration

Course Title: Entrepreneurial Field Studies Semester: Spring Year: 2019

Objectives/Competencies

Course Objective	Competencies
1. Demonstrate ability to work and think independently.	1. Accountable to mentor in work environment.
2. Apply textbook and classroom learning to real world situations.	1. Responsible to mentor for tasks assigned with minimum supervision.
3. Organize and allocate assigned work and tasks under real life deadlines.	1. Responsible to report results of assignments directly to mentor in assigned timeframe.
4. Prepare and adjust for risks associated with team work.	1. Allocate and monitor individual assignments. 2. Make proper adjustments to assignments as needed to meet team goals.
5. Analyze live case examples and apply principles and theories learned to detect problems.	1. Identify proper solutions to areas of concern. 2. Document solutions based on proper applications of principles and theories. 3. Offer prospective of results based on solutions applied.

