

OBJECTIVES/COMPETENCIES

Course Objectives	Competencies
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1) Students recognize common literary devices used in literature</li>   <li>2) Students will demonstrate reading comprehension skills</li>   <li>3) Students will place works of literature within context of the world in which the author writes</li>   <li>4) Students will describe the importance of the literary subject being studied to society</li> </ol>	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1) Students will identify literary devices relevant to the subject matter such as symbolism, metaphor, personification,</li> <li>2) Students will describe how the interaction of multiple literary devices contribute to mood or image</li>   <li>1) Students will list the key events that contribute to conflict within a narrative</li> <li>2) Students will infer the author/speaker's meaning from textual or contextual cues</li>   <li>1) Students will locate, evaluate, and document relevant primary and secondary sources</li> <li>2) Students will utilize information obtained from research to develop a framework for examining the historical, sociological, and/or cultural influences on the text creation</li> <li>3) Students will describe how the historical, cultural, and sociological events of the author's world contributed to the themes of the literary work</li>   <li>1) Student will identify major works and authors in the subject specific field</li> <li>4) Student will explain why themes within the genre play a larger role in the society in which they were written</li> </ol>