

SPRINGFIELD TECHNICAL COMMUNITY COLLEGE
ACADEMIC AFFAIRS

Course Number: LAW-214      Class/Lect. Hours:   3        Lab Hours:         Credits:   3        Dept.: Business Administration
 Course Title: Business Law      Semester: Spring      Year: 2019

OBJECTIVES/COMPETENCIES

Course Objectives	Competencies
1. Introduce the American Legal System  2. Develop critical thinking skills as part of the problem solving process  3. Examine the basic principles of law that govern business transactions	1. Describe sources and general categories of law 2. Describe the courts and their functions in both the Federal and State systems and other means of dispute resolution 3. Define ethical and legal principles to the decision making process in business situations  1. Identify the issue(s) presented by real world and hypothetical situations 2. Examine factual situations and apply the appropriate legal principles to the relevant facts contained in these situations in order to make the most logical decision 3. Examine factual situations and apply the proper ethical considerations to the relevant facts in order to make the best decision 4. Illustrate the best legal and/or most ethical decisions based upon the facts contained in these situations  1. Identify and define the element of a contract and a sale 2. Identify and define the various forms of property and structures that businesses may utilize 3. Identify and define some of the various relationships that commonly occur in business

--	--

Course Objectives	Competencies