SPRINGFIELD TECHNICAL COMMUNITY COLLEGE

ACADEMIC AFFAIRS

Course Number:	HIST 200	Department:	History
Course Title:	Modern Western Civilization	Semester:	Spring	Year:	1997

Objectives/Competencies

Course Objective Competencies 1. The purpose of the course is to provide the student with a The course is taught in a seminar style and each student is basic background in Western Civilization that can be expected to participate in the discussion. In some sections of used to explore other historical areas in depth. It is the course, the opportunity is given to prepare additional offered in the belief that such a basic background is historical research using primary sources for an honors intrinsically valuable and virtually indispensable to an component. understanding of the other arts, sciences and 1. Reasons for the coming of the Renaissance and technologies. Emphasis is placed on the continuity and unity of the human experience by stressing history in Reformation. terms of cultures, trends and forces rather than isolated 2. Impact of these events of Western Europe. people and events. Particular attention is paid to the rise 3. Political and cultural upheavals of the 15th and 16th of monarchy and the nation state and the development of centuries. economic and political revolutions. 4. Rise of the modern nation state. 5. Global expansion and the rise of global economy. 6. Enlightenment. 7. Revolutions, i.e., Glorious, American and French. 8. Era of Napoleon. 9. Industrial Revolution

10. Emergence of Imperialism.

Course Objective	Competencies
	11. World War I and its effect on Western Europe and the World.
	12. Intellectual creativity of the 1920's and the rise of totalitarian states.
	13. World War II and the atomic age.
	14. Cold War.			