

Course Objectives	Competencies
Students will: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Learn and begin to practice social work skills as a means to meet the program's goals 2. Examine and test their understanding of social work skills 3. Examine and test their understanding of social work values 4. Apply and integrate classroom learning into their field work experience 5. Acquire new knowledge about social work practice in a variety of practice settings 	Students will: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Develop a learning contract with field instructor and faculty liaison that outlines how he/she will develop and apply the behaviors required within the program's identified competencies 2. Demonstrate developing ability for self-reflection, recognition of individual strengths and areas for improvement, and learn to formulate short and long term goals for lifelong learning and personal and professional development. 3. Demonstrate the ability for critical thinking and communication through concise and accurate present case material in educational and professional contexts. 4. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> A. Discuss the advantages and challenges of working with a variety of client systems and settings and unique attributes of each. B. Practice identifying personal challenges in social work practice and/or other areas for further learning and improving practice skills by seeking and integrating feedback. 5. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> A. Use the skills learned in the classroom and developed by observation in fieldwork locations to various situations encountered while in internship B. Communicate an understanding of, and demonstrate, informed, sensitive, and competent practice with diverse and oppressed groups Students will be evaluated in the classroom through discussions, small group work, projects, and written tests. Students will be evaluated in the field

Course Number: _____ PSY-260

Course Objectives	Competencies
	through rubrics developed by the field work supervisor and faculty member. Students will also be evaluated by supervisors in the locations they perform their fieldwork.