OBJECTIVES/COMPETENCIES

Course Objectives	Competencies
1) Students recognize common literary devices used in literature	1) Students will identify literary devices relevant to the subject matter such as symbolism, metaphor, personification, 2) Students will describe how the interaction of multiple literary devices contribute to mood or image
2) Students will demonstrate reading comprehension skills	1) Students will list the key events that contribute to conflict within a narrative 2) Students will infer the author/speaker's meaning from textual or contextual cues
3) Students will place works of literature within context of the world in which the author writes	1) Students will locate, evaluate, and document relevant primary and secondary sources 2) Students will utilize information obtained from research to develop a framework for examining the historical, sociological, and/or cultural influences on the text creation 3) Students will describe how the historical, cultural, and sociological events of the author's world contributed to the themes of the literary work
4) Students will describe the importance of the literary subject being studied to society	1) Student will identify major works and authors in the subject specific field 4) Student will explain why themes within the genre play a larger role in the society in which they were written