

Course Objectives	Competencies
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. To expose students to the various career paths available within social work 2. To develop entry level research skills with particular attention to the use of academic resources 3. To introduce students to the NASW Code of Ethics 4. To expose students to initial licensure requirements and how to maintain licensure 5. To provide students with techniques to reduce academic fatigue and promote self-care 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Students will list the career paths associated within social work and human service fields. 2. Students will describe differences that exist within various human service settings. 1. Students will demonstrate a working knowledge of the APA citation format. 2. Students will assess the quality of information provided from digital sources. 3. Students will use library resource guides and academic search engines. 1. Students will demonstrate familiarity with the NASW Code of Ethics in role playing situations or case studies within small groups. 2. Students will be able to list some guiding principles of Ethics in the field of Social Work. 1. Students will be able to identify the steps in achieving licensure as a LSWA, LSW, LCSW, and LICSW. 2. Students will describe the process of completing and importance of Continuing Education Units (CEU). 1. Students will demonstrate techniques to manage scheduling, time management, and self/group reflection techniques. 2. Students will log a journal of activities and reflection.

6. To expose students to local human service resources

1. Students will develop a log of local human service resources.
2. Students will describe the role that each resource can provide members of the community.