

SPRINGFIELD TECHNICAL COMMUNITY COLLEGE

ACADEMIC AFFAIRS

Course Number: HIT-277 Class/Lect. Hours: 3 Lab Hours: _____ Credits: 3 Dept.: Health Information Technologies
 Course Title: Directed Clinical Practice 2 Semester: Fall Year: 2014

Course Objectives	Competencies
To expand on the experiences from HIT-277 and to provide the student with increased exposure to on-site activities within a healthcare facility.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Orientation to departments and functions of various healthcare facilities. 2. Observe and participate in Health Information Management Department functions. 3. Build communication and presentation skills. 4. Compare and contrast the working relationship among departments in the healthcare organization. 5. Recognize health information documentation flow in a healthcare setting. 6. Perform functions in a health information department. 7. Perform HIM related functions to include Coding, Abstracting, Registry work, statistics, and release of information while maintaining confidentiality of protected health information. 8. Develop a presentation on a HIT related topic from your directed practice experience. 9. Prepare handouts and material for the presentation. 10. Record experiences on a daily basis, reflecting on concepts/procedures learned.